

CORPORATE & PRIVATE EVENTS
AT SYON HOUSE

HOST UNFORGETTABLE EVENTS AT HISTORIC SYON PARK

Step into centuries of elegance at Syon House, the magnificent London residence of the Duke of Northumberland.

Set within over 200 acres of stunning parkland, this remarkable estate blends grandeur, history, and natural beauty to create a truly unique setting for your next event.

Built in the 16th century on the site of the former Syon Abbey, the house has been home to the same family since 1594 and has witnessed over 400 years of transformation and tradition.

Today, Syon Park stands as one of the most picturesque and prestigious privately owned estates in London, an exceptional backdrop for both corporate gatherings and private celebrations.

Great Hall

The Great Hall in all its Graeco-Roman splendour is the perfect location for any special dinner or reception. Sit under the watchful gaze of Apollo and take in the beauty of the intricately carved ceiling, a clever reflection of the striking black and white marble flooring. With all its years of history, the space is certain to give any event an elevated level of grandeur.
